Team,

It's been about a month now since our on-site meeting and I'm happy to report that there has been a big improvement. For the past 2 or so weeks we have noticed minimal homeless activity, thanks to support from LAPD and BID.

Attached are some pictures from today of Vine and Homewood. We have pressured washed the entire perimeter of the property and have one more for good measure scheduled for this coming Monday night. Lights have been installed along Vine Street and sprinkler upgrades have been completed along Homewood.

Please let us know if you have any additional feedback.

Thank you.

Josh,

Thank you for the speedy response. That clarifies quite a bit.

Joe,

Good news. Attached is the ALTA plan indicating the property lines around Academy and it confirms that the property line terminates at the building façade, including on Vine Street. See page 2 and the screen grab below for details. "East face of building on Property Line" is the note.

I believe this gives LAPD a bit more enforcement on the street considering that it is public? We will still continue with the other measures we discussed – signage, lighting and pressure washing.

Thanks!

We've had a positive outcome since our sidewalk meeting due to everyone's involvement and support. As long as we continue to remain consistent with enforcing the ordinances, I believe this trend will continue.

Thanks again for everyone's efforts.

Regards.
